DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Applicant has amended claim 1, 14, and 29 in the amendment filed on 30 June 2003. Thus, claim 1-30 are again presented for examination on the merits.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-30 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Semret et al. (hereinafter Semret), US Patent Application Publication 2003/0101124 A1.

As per claim 1, Semret discloses a system for bidding for a process execution over a heterogeneous network, said system comprising a network server adapted to receive a payload over the heterogeneous network from a network client, wherein the payload comprises specifications for a process execution associated with a task, wherein the server is further adapted to simulate the process execution, and provide a bid solicitation for the process execution by estimating computing resources required to carry out the process execution associated with the task, and provide a bid solicitation for the process execution from a network host (see figure 1 and associated text; ¶10-13, 34-35).

As per claim 2, Semret discloses a financial resolution center (fig 8 and associated text).

As per claim 3, Semret discloses the heterogeneous network comprises a network of computational devices (figures 1,2 and associated text).

As per claim 4, Semret discloses the heterogeneous network is absent information sent there across for maintaining secure access thereto (¶95).

As per claim 5, Semret discloses the network of computational devices comprises a network of multiple platforms (¶82-85).

As per claim 6, Semret discloses the payload is encrypted (¶95).

As per claim 7, Semret discloses the bid solicitation is encrypted (figure 9a, b and associated text; ¶95).

As per claim 8, Semret discloses a system as recited in claim 1, wherein providing a bid solicitation comprises providing a process simulation data set (figures 19, 20 and associated text).

As per claim 9, Semret discloses the network server is further adapted to receive a bid for the process execution (figure 9b and associated text; ¶10).

As per claim 10, Semret discloses the network server is further adapted to validate the bid with the financial resolution center (figure 8 and associated text; ¶34-45).

As per claim 11, Semret discloses the network server is further adapted to evaluate the bids (figures 6a, b and associated text).

As per claim 12, Semret discloses evaluating the bids comprises mediating negotiations between the network host and the network client, wherein the negotiations relate to the process execution (¶98).

As per claim 13, Semret discloses the network server is further adapted to maintain confidentiality as to the identity of the network client and the network host (¶95; figure 15a-r and associated text).

Claims 14-28 are directed to a method of the above system and claims 29-30 are directed to a computer-readable medium of the above system and are therefore rejected as above.
